9 THOMAS WEINSTEIN,

10 Plaintiff,

11 v.

12 MANDARICH LAW GROUP, LLP,

13 Defendant.
14

Case No. C17-1897RSM

ORDER DENYING DEFENDANT'S
MOTION TO DEEM REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION ADMITTED

15 This matter comes before the Court on Defendant Mandarin Law Group, LLP
16 ("Mandarich")'s Motion to Deem Requests for Admission Admitted. Dkt. #26. Mandarin
17 moves for an order deeming its requests for admission ("RFA") nos. 4, 5, 21, 22, and 24
18 admitted, and for an award of costs and attorneys' fees in pursuit of this Motion. Id. Plaintiff
19 Thomas Weinstein opposes. Dkt. #28. As an initial matter, Mandarin's Reply brief indicates 20 that disputes over RFAs 4 and 24 have been resolved. Dkt. #29.

22 In responding to requests for admission, if a matter is not admitted, "the answer must 23 specifically deny it or state in detail why the answering party cannot truthfully admit or deny
24 it." Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a)(4). "A denial must fairly respond to the substance of the matter; and 25 when good faith requires that a party qualify an answer or deny only a part of the matter, the 26 answer must specify the part admitted and qualify or deny the rest." Id. "The answering party

1 may assert lack of knowledge or information as a reason for failing to admit or deny only if the
2 party states that it has made reasonable inquiry and that the information it knows or can readily
3 obtain is insufficient to enable it to admit or deny.” Id. A party may move to determine the 4 sufficiency of an answer or objection. Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a)(6). “Unless the court finds an
5 objection justified, it must order that an answer be served.” Id. Failure to respond to requests
6 for admission in good faith is a basis for deeming such requests admitted. Asea, Inc. v. S. Pac.
7 Transp. Co., 669 F.2d 1242, 1246-47 (9th Cir. 1981) (it is within trial court's discretion to deem 8 requests for admission admitted for failure to respond in good faith).

10 The Court has reviewed Mr. Weinstein’s responses to these requests for admission, and 11 the record of communications between the parties, and agrees with Mr. Weinstein that 12 Mandarich is essentially moving the Court to change Mr. Weinstein’s responses from denials to 13 admissions. The formalities of Rule 36 were followed by Mr. Weinstein, his answers were 14 made in good faith, and his objections were justified. The fact that Mr. Weinstein amended a 15 previously more detailed answer to “deny” could, with other evidence, show the denial was 16 improper; such is properly addressed after trial and not with the current Motion. See Fed. R.
17 Civ. P. 37(c)(2).

19

20 Having reviewed the relevant briefing, the declarations and exhibits attached thereto,
21 and the remainder of the record, the Court hereby finds and ORDERS that Defendant
22 Mandarich’s Motion to Deem Requests for Admission Admitted, Dkt. #26, is DENIED.
23

24 DATED this 31 day of October, 2018.
